1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a review of the literature on the topic. It starts with a general introduction to the field, followed by a more detailed discussion of the various methods used in the studies. The second part of the paper presents the results of the experiments. It begins with a description of the experimental setup, followed by a presentation of the data and a discussion of the findings. The third part of the paper discusses the implications of the results and suggests directions for future research.
